

PAWtected Associates Ethos

All PAWtected Associates agree to the following statements

I will ensure that all of the 5 animal welfare freedoms are met, as outlined by the Animal Welfare Act.

I will ensure my dog is healthy and that I consult with a registered vet for advice regarding my dogs health. I am aware of my dogs needs relating to diet, weight, exercise, training, and preventative healthcare.

I will ensure my dog is trained ethically and without the use of fear or pain.

I understand my legal obligations as a dog owner.

In addition to those mentioned above, any Associate wishing to become an Associate Assistance Dog also agrees to the following statements.

I have a disability as defined by the Equality Act 2010 and my dog is able to, or will learn how to, mitigate this disability.

I will ensure my dog is clean and well presented whilst working, including smart and easily understandable gear identifying my dog as an Assistance Dog. Inappropriate language must be avoided.

I will ensure that I use appropriate terminology when identifying my Assistance Dog.

I will ensure that my dog has a suitable level of training and that training standards are maintained throughout the dogs working life.

I understand the laws relating to access and are able to communicate these when needed.
